

10-Day Kashmir & Ladakh : Scenic Beauty & Cultural Delights” 10天喀什米尔与拉达克：风景之美与文化之享

The Srinagar and Ladakh trip is designed to complement each other, as Ladakh is situated at a higher elevation. To ensure a safe and enjoyable experience, it is essential to allow several days for acclimatization before heading to Ladakh, also known as Little Tibet. The gradual adjustment to the altitude in Srinagar helps prepare the body for the higher altitudes of Ladakh. This process minimizes the risk of altitude sickness and allows travelers to fully enjoy the stunning landscapes and unique culture of the region. Proper acclimatization is key to making the most of this incredible journey.
